

Save the Date for OTC25 in '25

Texas A&M University is excited and honored to be hosting the 25th Occasional Temperament Conference (OTC25) in 2025.

Texas A&M University is situated approximately 1.5 hours drive from Houston and approximately 2 hours drive from Austin.

Conference dates: November 6th to 8th, 2025

Keynote speakers: Martha Ann Bell (Virginia Tech) & Xinyin Chen (University of Pennsylvania)

Details on conference registration, hotels/lodging, submissions will be shared by mid- or late-March.

Proposals for paper and poster presentations will be accepted beginning in April.

Major airports:

Flying into Houston (2 options):

- George Bush Intercontinental Airport (airport code: IAH)
- William P. Hobby Airport (airport code: HOU)

From IAH or HOU, there are two convenient options to get to College Station:

1. Ground Shuttle
 - a. To schedule a ground shuttle from Houston Airport to College Station, visit:
<https://www.groundshuttle.com/>
2. Connecting flight to Easterwood Airport in College (airport code: CLL)
3. Rental Car and driving 1.5 hours

Flying into Austin:

- Austin-Bergstrom International Airport (airport code: AUS)

From AUS, there are connecting flight to get to College Station or driving 2 hours:

1. Connecting flight to Easterwood Airport in College (airport code: CLL)
2. Rental Car and driving 2 hours

The OTC25 Organizing Committee consists of members across three Colleges (Education & Human Development, Arts & Sciences, and Agriculture & Life Sciences) at Texas A&M.

OTC25 Organizing Committee,

Chair: Jeffrey Liew

Co-Chairs: Rebecca Brooker, Jeffrey Gagne, Jun Wang, Zhe Wang